A home that puts your family first

The Homes... because you're looking for the right home to raise and shelter your family... one where you would like to spend precious moments with your loved ones every day. A shelter of love and comfort where you want to see your children grow up.

A piece of property that will take you to the future with a valuable possession.

When you think of your family... think of The Homes.

Living space of absolute comfort and style

Enjoy from home the best things in life. In deluxe residential villas designed in contemporary architectural style. Overflowing with comfort and extra living space... with up to 4- or 5-bedrooms that will perfectly suit a growing family.

And whether it's from your living room or bedroom terrace... panoramic windows let you indulge in a refreshing view of your private pool that's nestled in a well-manicured front garden with flowering shrubs and shade trees in full bloom all year round.

And each villa is also built with features that add extra convenience for residents... such as a maid's or driver's room, and a 2-slot car park.

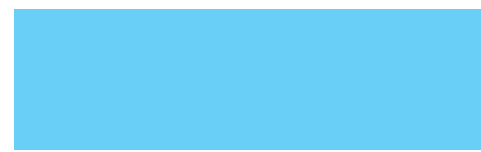

Live right next to the hub

The Homes is conveniently located in Hamala, a village in Bahrain, near the King Fahd Causeway. Hamad Town is just a 10-minute drive, and Central Manama barely 15 minutes away. It is also located adjacent to the coastline, and from home, you can savor the sea breeze coming from the marina.

Nearby is a wide range of destinations for dining and shopping. The neighboring Crown Prince-Hamala Road hosts a wide array of fastfood, cafe and gourmet establishments. Convenience shopping is available with 24-hour stores and 'all-under-one-roof' hypermarkets within reach.

Quality education is accessible with St. Christopher British School and the University College of Bahrain nearby.

What's more, residents can easily make weekend trips to family sports and recreation facilities, such as the Hamala Beach Resort and the Dilmun Rugby Club.

A life of luxury in a well - secured community

At The Homes, it's the uniqueness of the environment, and the experience it brings that's worth coming home to everyday.

The community layout is designed in a way that families can enjoy leisure and recreation facilities right in their own backyards. With all the freedom to enjoy it anytime, the exclusivity to do it in privacy with family and friends, and the peace of mind that you are all safe and secure inside the premises of your home community.

At The Homes, you can have a weekend barbecue with the children in the outdoors, enjoy night-swimming with friends, or perhaps spend a leisurely time at the entertainment center with a neighbor.

Add to all these, the round-the-clock security and an efficient property management system that looks after you and your family when you're home... or whenever you leave it.
